

PUBLIC NOTICE
NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY
FAIRVIEW INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS

Students, their parents, employees and potential employees of the Fairview Schools are hereby notified the Fairview Independent School District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, religion, marital status, sex, or disability in employment programs, educational programs, vocational programs or activities set forth in compliance with the Office of Civil Rights Law, Title I, Title V, Title IX, Section 504 and the American Disabilities Act.

The Fairview Independent School District offers the following vocational educational programs for all students regardless of race, color, national origin, including those with limited English proficiency, sex or disability in grades 9-12: Principles of Marketing, Financial Services, Sports/Events Marketing, and Digital Literacy. The following vocational school classes are available to students in grades 11-12: Heating/Humidification; Cooling/Dehumidification; Refrigeration Fundamentals; Journeyman Preparation; Introduction to Computer aided Drafting; Basic Welding; Shielded Metal Arc Welding; Gas Metal Arc Welding; Oxy Fuel Systems; Construction I and II; Introduction to Architecture; CAD 100 Introduction to CAD; CAD 102 Drafting Fundamentals; Print Reading; and Medical Terminology.

Any person having inquiries concerning Fairview School's compliance with the Office of Civil Rights Law, Title VI, Title VII, Title IX and Section 504 is directed to contact Michael Taylor, Fairview Board of Education, 2201 Main Street, WW, Ashland, Kentucky 41102, (606) 324-3877, who has been designated by Fairview to coordinate the district's efforts to comply with these regulations.

*Published on Fairview Independent Schools Website
August 8, 2017*